From the Director

There is more to reading than just saying words. You are your child's first and most important teacher. These tips can help your child get ready to read.
*Talk about the story.
*Discuss words and sounds
*Talk about new words and their meanings.
*Ask comprehension questions about the story.
*Read the same book over and over.
*Talk about the pictures.
* Discuss the letters, capitals, lower case.
